GeyerGorey LLP Opens Boston Office; Consolidates Mail and Shipping Processing System
WASHINGTON -- GeyerGorey LLP today announced the opening of a new office in Boston. This is the firm's third office. The Boston office now joins with the firm's Washington, D.C. and Philadelphia offices in providing international and inside-the-beltway experience to individuals and companies that have become -- or wish to avoid becoming -- the subject of federal criminal law enforcement agency interest. Partner Robert J. Zastrow will be resident in the Boston office.

GeyerGorey also announced the implementation of a new centralized mail and shipping procedure whereby mail and documents are received, processed and disseminated to firm members from a single location. According to Zastrow, "by consolidating our mail and document processing operations, we have developed one correspondence and document tracking, processing and routing system that operates in near "real-time" that files information in the correct location and gives the appropriate attorneys and staff access to the information wherever they happen to be working on that day."

GeyerGorey LLP aims to meet the needs of companies for advice and training in compliance with federal criminal laws and in the detection of wrongdoing by corporate employees. The firm also specializes in the defense of white-collar criminal cases. The firm's Web site may be found at www.GeyerGorey.com (<http://www.geyergorey.com/>).

The Boston office is located at 60 State Street, Suite 700, Boston, MA 02109. The office telephone number is (617) 910-3989.

For further information, please call Bob Zastrow at (617) 910-3989.
